Numb. 9376.

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday May 28, to Saturday June 1, 1754.

Westminster, May 31, 1754.

THIS Day the new Parliament met, and His Majesty's Commission, impowering His Royal Highness the Duke of Cumberland, and several Lords therein named, to open and hold the said Parliament, was read in the Presence of both Houses. And the Commons were directed to choose their Speaker, and to present him To-morrow to the Lords Commissioners.

Westminster, June 1.

This Day the two Houses of Parliament having again met, the Commons presented to the Lords Commissioners, the Right Honourable Arthur Onslow, Esq; whom they had chosen to be their Speaker; and the Lords Commissioners having, in His Majesty's Name, approved their Choice, the Lord High Chancellor made the following Speech to both Houses.

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

IN Pursuance of the Authority given Us by His Majesty's Commission, under the Great Seal, amongst other Things, to declare the Causes of Your present Meeting, We are, by the King's Command, to acquaint You, That His Majesty has been graciously pleased to give You this early Opportunity of coming together, in order that certain Parliamentary Proceedings may be gone through, which His Majesty judges it will be for the Satisfaction of His good Subjects to have compleated without Loss of Time.

His Majesty does not think proper now to lay before You any Points of general Business, reserving every Thing of that Nature to the usual Time of Your assembling in the Winter. But We are expressly directed to assure You, That His Majesty has the greatest Confidence in the Duty and good Affections of this Parliament for His Royal Person, Family, and Government, and in their Zeal for the true Interest of their Country, of which He doubts not to find the best Effects.

We have nothing further in Command from His Majesty, except to recommend to You, as well for the publick Convenience, as Your own, to give the utmost Dispatch to what is at present necessary to come under Your Consideration.

[Price Two-Pence.]

Aranjuez, May 13. On Tuesday last the new Nuntio had his first Audience of their Catholick Majesties, who were pleased to honour him with a most gracious Reception. Lieutenant General Wall is expected here the latter End of this Week, when, it is thought, that he will be appointed Minister of State, in the Room of the late M. de Carvajal. By Letters from Cadiz we have Advice, that on the 27th past arrived there the Vengarvza, a Spanish Man of War, from Cartagena and the Havana, with about 560,000 Dollars for the Commerce, and 187,000 for the King. The St. Joseph, belonging to the Seville Company, sailed about the same Time from the Havana with 260,000 Dollars; but she is not as yet arrived. The Sultana Register Ship, that was ready to sail from Vera Cruz, was drove on Shore by a strong North Wind; her Hull is bulg'd, but her Cargoe, consisting of Cochineal, Indigo, &c. will be saved with little Damage.

Members returned for the ensuing Parliament.

Whitehall, June 1, 1754.

Whereas it has been humbly repreſented to the King, That a Set of Corn-Mills, in the Pariſh of Houghton, in the County of Huntingdon, belonging to Mr. John Yuſtſon, of Godmancheſter, in the ſaid County, were ſet on Fire on the 15th of May laſt, between the Hours of Twelve at Night and One in the Morning, and were entirely conſumed; together with a large Quantity of Corn, and Flower, and all the Utenſils, and Furniture belonging to the ſaid Mills; and that there is very ſtrong Reaſon to ſuſpect the ſaid Mills were purpoſely ſet on Fire; His Majeſty, for the better diſcovering, and bringing to Juſtice, the Perſon or Perſons concerned in ſetting the ſaid Mills on Fire, is pleaſed to promiſe his moſt gracious Pardon to any one of them (except the Perſon who actually ſet Fire to the ſaid Mills) who ſhall diſcover his Accomplice or Accomplices in the ſaid Fact, ſo that he, ſhe, or they, may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

HOLDERNESSE.

And, as a further Encouragement, I do hereby promiſe a Reward of Fifty Pounds to any Perſon making ſuch Diſcovery as aforeſaid, (except the Perſon who actually ſet Fire to the ſaid Mills,) to be paid, by me, upon the Conviction of one or more of the Offenders.

John Jackſon.

Admiralty-Office, May 29, 1754.

Whereas by an Act paſſed the laſt Seſſion of Parliament, Money was granted for paying a Bounty for the Year 1754, of two Shillings and Six-pence per Day to twenty Chaplains, and five Shillings per Day to twenty-one Chaplains, who have ſerved longeſt on Board His Majeſty's Ships of War, provided it appears by the Book of the ſaid Ships, that they have actually been employed thereon, for the Space of five Years, during the laſt War with France and Spain; and provided likewiſe, that ſuch Chaplains do not enjoy the Benefice of ſome Eccleſiaſtical Living or Preferment, from the Crown or otherwiſe, of the preſent annual Value of Fifty Pounds.

Theſe are to give Notice to all ſuch Chaplains, as are within the aforeſaid Deſcription, that they are, on or before the firſt Day of Auguſt next, to apply to the Commiſſioners of His Majeſty's Navy, at their Office in London, to be allowed to the ſaid Bounty; and at the ſame Time to deliver a Liſt of the Ships they have ſerved in, together with an Affidavit made before a proper Magiſtrate, that they do not enjoy the Benefit of ſome Eccleſiaſtical Living or Preferment, from the Crown or otherwiſe, of the preſent annual Value of Fifty Pounds, in order that Liſts may be made out for the Payment of the aforeſaid Bounty.

DR. JAMES's Powder for FEVERS, and other Inflammatory Diſtempers, publiſhed by Virtue of His MAJESTY's ROYAL LETTERS PATENT, will remove (as has been experienced in many thouſand Caſes) any cauſleſs acute Fever in a few Hours, though attended with Convulſions, Light-headedneſs, and the worſt Symptoms: But if taken in the Beginning of a Fever, one Dole is generally ſufficient to perform a Cure.

It is likewiſe a moſt effectual Remedy for all internal Inflammations, Pleuriſies, Quinſies, acute Rheumatiſms, and the Lowneſs of Spirits, and Uneaſineſſes proceeding from ſlow and latent Fevers, which are generally miſtaken for Vapours and Hyſterics; and a ſingle Dole remarkably ſtops the Progreſs of a Cold, and certainly prevents the ill Conſequences ariſing from that very common Diſorder, the Source of almoſt all Diſtempers.

This Powder (which is a very ſafe and pleaſant Medicine to take) is ſold by J. Newbery at the Bible and Sun in St. Paul's Church-yard, over-againſt the North Door of the Church, at 5 s. 6 d. the two Doſes, with good Allowance to thoſe who buy it for charitable Uſes, or to ſell again; and by James Hoſack, Printer, on the Blind Quay, Dublin.
